Jan. 4, 1967

Dear Mr. Weisberg

I had listened to you speak at the Hall of Flowers at Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. I bought your book "Whitewash". I have read pages 1 & 2 and find I have missing the book continues on page 57 pages missing the Table of Contents, I am missing the last part of "M. Oswald's Legal Rights" and No. 8 most of "Oswald's Murder: The Press and the Police." The publisher had of course goofed.

Do I send the book back to you or the publisher? I would very much have the book replaced by a complete one, as I enjoy learning all about Oswald's case. I also feel bad about it, because this book was signed by you and I hate to give it up.

Please let me know if I should return it to you or the publisher. If I could obtain one from you, then I would appreciate your signing it again.

I know you're busy so I'm enclosing a self-addressed envelope. Don't write too much, just let me know with a sentence or two.

Most Respectfully